Dear Mr. McGrath:

While processing your May 16, 2016 Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) located a record and referred it to the National Security Division (NSD) on August 2, 2018. This record was received in NSD on August 16, 2018.

We have reviewed this record and are releasing it in part pursuant to the following FOIA Exemptions set forth in 5 U.S.C. 552(b): (1) and (3). The FBI requested this withholding.

For your information, Congress excluded three discrete categories of law enforcement information and national security records from the requirements of the FOIA. See 5 U.S.C. §552(c). This response is limited to those records that are subject to the requirements of the FOIA. This is standard notification that is given to all our requesters and should not be taken as an indication that excluded records do, or do not, exist.

You may contact the Office of Government Services (OGIS) at the National Archives and Records Administration to inquire about the FOIA mediation services they offer. The contact information for OGIS is: Office of Government Services, National Archives and Records Administration, 8601 Adelphi Road-OGIS, College Park, Maryland 20740-6001, or at ogis@nara.gov, or 202-741-5770, or toll free at 1-877-684-6448, or facsimile at 202-741-5769. Or you may contact our Public Liaison at 202-233-0756.

If you are not satisfied with this response, you may administratively appeal by writing to the Director, Office of Information Policy, U.S. Department of Justice, 1425 New York Avenue, N.W., Suite 11050, Washington, D.C. 20530, or you may submit an appeal through OIP's FOIA portal by creating an account at: <https://www.foiaonline.gov/foiaonline/action/public/home>. Your appeal must be postmarked or transmitted electronically within 90 days of the date of my response to your request. If you submit an appeal by mail, both the letter and envelope should be clearly marked, "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."

Sincerely,

Kevin Tiernan, Chief
Records Management and FOIA

Federal Bureau of

D. Lowell Jensen
Assistant Attorney General
Criminal Division

In April, 1966, the African National Congress of South Africa registered under the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended (FARA). Until November 1978, the ANC filed appropriate documents under FARA. In the period since November, 1978, despite repeated attempts on our part including our hand delivery of the appropriate forms to the ANC office on August 4, 1981, no forms have been filed. We have not been able to contact the ANC or its representatives to determine whether the ANC has been dissolved or whether its obligation to file has been otherwise terminated.

The Department of State had advised us that it has no current information concerning the current location of the ANC. We have also attempted to locate the ANC through telephone directory assistance for the 5 boroughs of New York City but we have been advised that there is no listing for the ANC.

In order to assist us in reaching a determination of the ANC's possible obligations under the Act, and prior to initiating a civil injunctive action, we request that you ascertain whether the ANC currently maintains offices in New York City. To assist you in this regard, the ANC maintained an office at the following addresses:

801 2nd Avenue
Suite 405
New York, New York 10017

310 East 44th Street
Room 1703

Please determine whether either or both of the above addresses are maintained by the ANC and, if not, whether the

We also request that you determine whether Johnstone Makatini, David Ndaba, S. Choabi, T. Mbeki, and A. Mkhize are currently associated with the ANC, and, if so, where and how they can be contacted.
